

Notebook 1960

Hello Betty!
 Well, another year gone by's our friendship is still growing.
 Just think, only one more year and we'll be out on our own. But the boys can support us if we can't find a job. Ha! Ha! well, I hope we keep this friendship - as been a lot of fun - especially the last two years!! Well. Lots of love your future specs at O. H. S.
 with love
 Betty - (Osman)

Have fun this summer. Best of luck to a real swell kid
 John O'Brien

All the love to you
 in your future year.
 Warren Kram

Hi Betty
 It's been fun
 knowing you. I'm glad I met you before high school
 fate of luck.
 Joan Mueller

Hi Betty
 It has been nice knowing
 you. Maybe we will make it three years in a row for being in the same class. Good Luck
 See you next year.
 Ronald F. Loner

 Betty Boettner

Hi Betty
 I'll see you in a hurry - but I'll be seeing you with good luck with that friend - Betty

Hi Betty
 It was nice having
 you play clarinet with me. Wish you luck in Concert Band
 Dennis Dent

Hi Betty,
 I'm so glad we'll both be together in Concert Band next year. Maybe we'll see more of each other then. Best of luck in the future.
 Sandy Peterson

Hi Betty,
 I so glad I had
 you in my class
 next year. I hope you'll be a great success in everything
 you do. Love,
 Mary

Betty, I hope you'll be a great success in everything
 you do. Love,
 Mary

Best of luck
 always,
 Mary Abraham

Hello Betty
But of luck in your Senior year. If I were smart I might be able to think of something to say to your friend
John P. Le

Betty, it was me
you're sitting in you're in geometry. You're a real swell girl.
Best of luck with Bill too. From what I've seen, he's real cute. See you as a big senior next year.
Shelly Dennis

Hi Betty,
I am glad we were in 8th year Geometry together. Take it easy with Bill and have a wonderful summer.
Best of luck to a
swell kid.

That Wonderful, Wonderful Year

. . . AND IT WAS A WONDERFUL YEAR, wasn't it? . . . a happy, rewarding year for the faculty and students here at OHS. So many exciting things happened between September and June that every single one of us will carry away something very special to remember.

WAS IT THE YEAR that you worked for straight A's — or did you pass up studying for the gay, social whirl? . . . It may have been your first year without a detention — or was it? . . . Did the clamoring confusion of your first potlucks help to develop your school spirit — as well as your waistline? . . . Did you take an after-school job and accumulate your first "folding money?" . . . Perhaps you met your ideal at the Charity Cruise or the Valentine Dance and started going steady . . . Maybe you tried out for the team or the play or the staff — whether you made it or not, you had the satisfaction of knowing you were in there pitching . . . Some of you won honors and letters and scholarships . . . Others of you decided not to compete for these things but were content to know that you were part of a big school that does things in a big way so that you felt a thrill of pride when you came to your feet to sing "Hail, Alma Mater!"

YES, THERE WERE HIGH DAYS and there were low ones . . . We hope that the happy memories far outnumber the sad ones and that your NOTEBOOK will help you to relive that wonderful year of

1960

Remember How It All Began . . .

WE CAME FROM EVERYWHERE — from Merrill and Webster and Roosevelt and Park, from St. Mary's, St. Peter's, St. Vincent's, and Campus.

WE HAD HEARD that a high school education is an absolute must in our society, so we got here any way we could . . .

MANY OF US rode a lowly bike. . . .
MORE OF US arrived footsore but eager. . . .
A FEW OF US drove up in a car — or a reasonable facsimile!

WE ENCOUNTERED one of the "top brass" who shooed us inside to get our programs.

WE WERE JOLTED by the staggered shift schedule but . . .

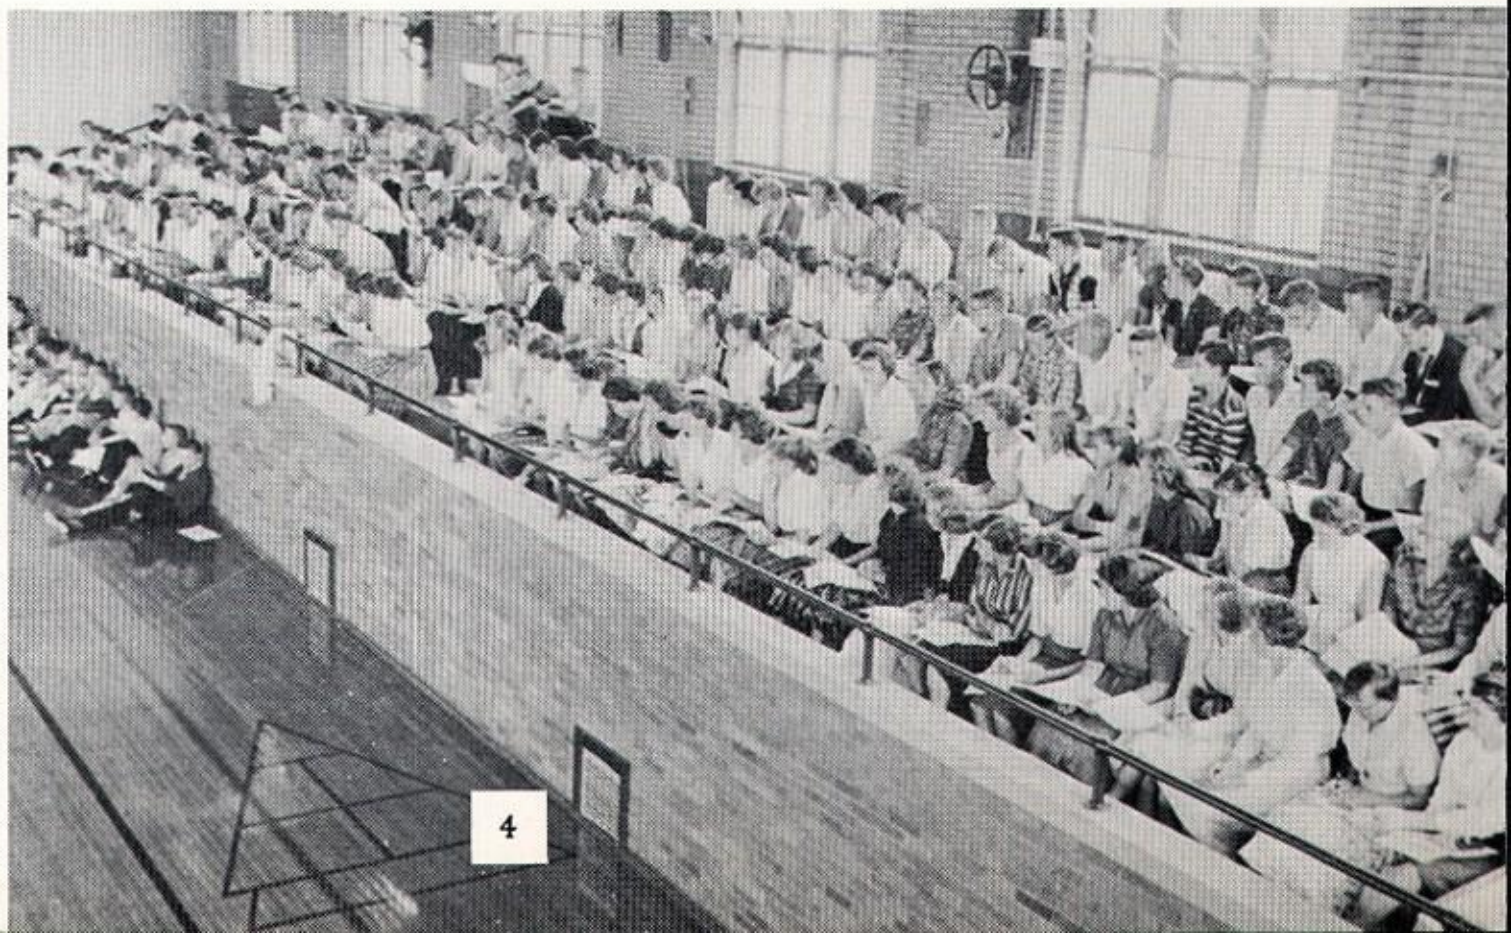

WE ACCEPTED our cards bravely with a resolution to carry on!

WE SOPHOMORES LISTENED to speakers on Orientation Day — speakers who made us proud to be part of a fine school.

Betty,
 Didn't we have fun in Band this year?
 I hope I get in Concert Band
 next year.
 Have fun this summer.
 Nancy
 Ebert

WE WERE MADE TO FEEL welcome and were given some helpful hints to see us through the first difficult weeks.

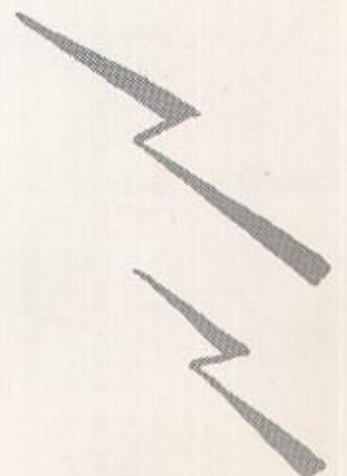

WE UPPERCLASSMEN FELT smug and superior as we guided bewildered sophomores to their classrooms. . . .

WE WATCHED THEM follow our directions, wearily climb the stairs, — and promptly get lost!

*Luck always.
Have fun
in geometry?
Have a happy!
Mary Cuisinier*

ALL OF US FOUND our way to the cage where senior "wheels" took away all our dimes in exchange for book covers.

WE FINALLY GOT DOWN to the serious business of classes and found ourselves in unfamiliar rooms filled with strangers — strangers who were to become friends as the year went on.

*Best of luck
in senior year
Carol Tippald*

WE BECAME steady customers of the libraries and learned the meaning of the verb, "to study"!

WE WERE THRILLED by our first pep meeting. The cheers, the band, the noise and confusion and excitement made us feel that at last we really belonged and we began to look forward to . . .

*A Wonderful, Wonderful
Year*

Hi Betty
well meet year you'll be a big senior. Hope to see ya this summer & good luck in the future.

Volume 14*

1960

Mr. Phillip Lampert, Mr. James Cain (President), Mr. George Oaks, Mr. Milton Seefeld, Mr. Wesley Schneider, Mr. Robert Mehlman, Mr. Charles Boller.

Board of Education

WE ARE ALL PROUD of the members of our BOARD OF EDUCATION and we share your happiness and excitement as you take this first giant step toward the realization of our dream of a new High School!

Mr. and Mrs. Perry A. Tipler

Superintendent of Schools

EVEN THOUGH OUR PATHS almost never cross, we are all aware of the real progress in the Oshkosh school system since you came to our town in January, 1946 to be our SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS. We know that you have charge of fifteen public schools, that six of these buildings are brand new and that two others have had an expert "face-lifting." We know, too, that you are responsible for 326 teachers and supervisors and along the way many of those teachers have become our friends. Most important to us, of course, is the prospect of the new high school to be opened in 1961. We realize that all these things take endless time and planning and work and we all say, "Thank you!"

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Traeger — Miss Carolyn Traeger

Principal

WE'VE HEARD THAT in the old days the office of the PRINCIPAL was a pretty frightening place — a place where kids never went except to be punished — and we're glad it isn't that way at our school. You make us feel welcome to drop in any time we have anything to talk over . . . you join us at parties and games and pep meetings . . . you make us feel that you really care about the things we do . . . and all this in addition to keeping a school of 1,811 students and eighty faculty members running smoothly. No wonder we really mean it when we cheer: "Traeger, Traeger, Mmmmboy, what a man!"

HOMER S. FRATT
M.S. University of Wisconsin
Vice-Principal

The Office

is a pretty familiar place to all of us. Some of us were sent there because we got out of line, and we came away with flushed cheeks and detention slips! . . . others went in to use the phone, to ask a favor from the obliging secretaries, or to pick up an excuse . . . many of us went in for helpful guidance from the counsellors. Yes, the office means many things to many people.

Members of the Faculty

For thirty-eight weeks, as MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY, our lives, both in school and out, have been closely linked with yours. We chaperoned your dances . . . we cheered with you at games . . . we rejoiced over special recognition that came your way and, believe it or not, we felt worse than you did about those F's . . . We tried to plan the best possible program for you . . . We shared the fun as well as the work of your extra-curricular activities . . . We were frequently snowed under by assignments and announcements, by text books and by tests . . . And we kept in trim for all of this by daily hikes from the Red Brick to the Vocational!

Of course, there were many inner satisfactions which you, perhaps, wouldn't understand. There was the relaxing cup of coffee in the teachers' room . . . the occasional week-end when we went home without any papers to grade . . . the convention speaker who promised to be dull but who turned out to be inspiring and opened new horizons for us . . . the weeks when Friday and payday coincided . . . the times when we caught a gleam of appreciation and understanding in your eyes . . . and that very rare moment when one of you stopped as we were brushing chalk dust off our hands at the end of the day and said, "Gee, but I got a lot out of your class." . . . It was then that we learned all over again why teaching is for us.

*This Betty,
we all we
did have with our
a mess! Have fun lessons! Have fun
this summer with Bill and he good!

Language Arts

SINCE OVER FIFTY PERCENT of our time at OHS is spent in the classroom, the faculty made sure that we were offered a wide variety of interesting courses — (let's admit it, lots of them were interesting!) In LANGUAGE ARTS, for instance, not only could we take Latin, French, and Spanish, but our required English was brightened considerably by such additional choices as Public Speaking, Journalism, Creative Writing, Dramatics, Oral Interpretation and Current Communications. WE WHO ARE INTERESTED in homemaking found that our HOME ECONOMICS course does so much more than just teach us to sew on a button or stir up a cake. Physical Education and Health

A strong PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND HEALTH department is important to any school and ours is no exception. Of course we took gym — two years of it. Even those of us who weren't quite up to the regular classes had a chance at restricted exercise. Lots of us took part in a broad program of intramurals; all of us took Driver Education (to make the world safe for pedestrians); and, when intensive studying (???) gave us a headache, we took an aspirin from the school nurse!

Miss Draeger, Mr. Hathaway, Miss Bachkal, and Mr. Kurtz dine elegantly Chez L'ecole.

Underclassmen

WE SOPHOMORES entered our new surroundings with high expectations . . . and little secret fears. We soon became well acquainted with the tram traffic, biology labs, pep meetings, library cards, and the warps in the classroom floors . . . We tried to appear blasé in the face of disasters like the shock of that first report card!

WE JUNIORS felt very superior — as though we really knew the ropes — until we were forced to enter into battle with plane geometry and the finer points of English grammar . . . We enjoyed meeting new friends and we learned that Seniors aren't so bad, after all . . . We translated, calculated, investigated, and contemplated . . . We learned that being UNDERCLASSMEN meant only that we had many more wonderful experiences ahead of us!

Dear Betty,
It sure was fun being in classes with you this year! English wasn't too bad when we helped each other! Best of luck always to a real swell gal!

Annie Galow

P.S. Pete was quite a guy!

Remember the fun
we had in the aud.
talking all the time.
Hope to see you
next year when we are big "Seniors".

Betty
I did not see much of you
this year but what I did see was a lot of fun.
I can't get mad at me for teaming
just like to make hill Jenkins.
and all that gibber gabber.
Have fun
James Koch

ALL THROUGH THE YEAR we enjoyed a variety of school ACTIVITIES. We heard inspiring talks . . . took part in panel discussions . . . went on field trips . . . watched movies. We entertained others with speeches and concerts and plays. We remember those wonderful moments when we swelled with pride at the results of our efforts . . . seeing that article in print . . . taking that second bow . . . pounding the gavel for the first time . . . receiving compliments on the banquet decorations . . . !

Then, too, we grew to understand each other . . . to appreciate others' abilities and, in some measure, to develop our own.

As we participated and cooperated, we found that we were learning together and liking it!

Hi Betty,
This year was fun wasn't it. Especially at all the pot lucks that went on. nept had better be twice as good.

Future Business Leaders of America

WE'RE THE GIRLS who know where we're going and we hope we're on our way! It's a tough course, this business education, but FBLA meetings do provide a few lighter moments. Even so, the club gives us opportunity for valuable experience as we do work for various members of the faculty, when we are lucky enough to get outstanding speakers to address our meetings, and especially at our annual convention. Yes, we're very "busyness-like" people!

Future Farmers of America

THINGS ARE ALWAYS POPPING IN FFA — and we don't mean the corn. Usually we have a lot of things going at once. It could be a lighting demonstration or the banquet for the crowning of the Corn and Oats Kings. Sometimes it's an oratorical contest or a basketball tournament. But always our biggest thrill is to see our prize exhibits displayed at the State and County Fairs. All sixty-seven of us have just one goal in mind: to improve the quality of the nation's market basket!

Junior Red Cross

EVERYBODY KNOWS ABOUT the things we do in Junior Red Cross . . . about our food and clothing drives to help the needy . . . about the entertainments we plan for the children at the orphanage and for hospital patients . . . about the assistance we give to the senior chapter during the annual membership drive . . . and especially about the hours of work we put in at every blood bank. We like to feel that we have been an influence for good in the lives of many people in our town.

Student Library Service Club

IT HAD ALWAYS BEEN FUN to see what goes on backstage and library work is no exception. We learn a lot about the world of books from working "behind the scenes" in our three libraries and a lot about the people who read those books. (We're preparing a pamphlet, "1,001 reasons for not returning a book on time.") But when we go to our regular meetings we forget about overdue slips and rubber stamps and just have fun — and sometimes food!

Regalis Ordo Romuli

ASK ANYONE WHO BELONGS TO LATIN CLUB and he'll tell you that our big moment — our Roman Banquet — is worth everything we put into it. The costumes, the food, the entertainment all add up to a truly lavish affair, complete with fingerbowls and slaves to pass them. It's all as authentic as we can make it. Of course, instead of gathering in a huge banquet hall, we meet in the school cafeteria but, as we always, say, "Be it ever so humble, there's no place like Rome".

Future Teachers of America

ONE OF THE REASONS WE JOINED FTA was to learn what this teaching business is all about and to decide whether or not we want to go into it. To that end, we've had a panel discussion on the pitfalls of teaching, lectures on the brighter side of the job, and movies prepared by the Wisconsin Education Association. Of course, we all get a kick out of the visiting day which we spend in the grade we think we'd like to teach. As we go along, we somehow begin to get the idea that, after all, teachers are people.

NATURALLY, WE'RE PROUD to have been chosen by the faculty for membership in the National Honor Society. We understand that there used to be a chapter here some twenty-five years ago but that it was discontinued in favor of a group named in honor of a much-loved principal. We're happy about the new arrangement because it combines a name that is important in the tradition of our school with one that has national recognition.

Student Council

AT EVERY MEETING OF STUDENT COUNCIL there were all kinds of important items on our agenda — items important to us and to our school. The project dearest to our hearts was the calendar drive to help earn the money which makes our foreign exchange student program possible. In addition we put on several special dances and even did our bit for school spirit by sponsoring Color Day and Dress-up Day. It's a lot of work being in Student Council, but it's fun!

Confession of Faith

I lift my tired eyes
and with my generation worship the monstrous idols glorifying the almighty century.
"Hallelujah," sing we to the skyscraper,
Crucifix of steel, vast ladder climbing to the sky, leaning against a wall of progress, built in triumph.
"Climb," say we.

I lower my tired eyes
And with my generation seek shelter
in a hole dug deep away in the ground.
"Save us," we cry to the bomb shelter,
hiding place from our own sin, vast tunnel leading into one hell when another of man's own invention falls
from above, built in fear.
"Run," say we.

I kiss the velvet surface that is a sleeping child's cheek and gently slip one finger into that tiny fist, and find there is more strength
and security than in all the works of steel.
"God is good," say I.
Anne Moore

Good Night

In the year of '41
A father said to his young son,
"Tom, my boy, now you come here.
And listen hard but shed no tear.
I've been called to make a stand
To fight a war in a foreign land.
Now, when I'm gone, you'll be the man,
So help your mom as best you can.
Mind her always; help her laugh;
Do nothing, Tom, to provoke her wrath.
Keep yourself both clean and neat,
And please, dear Tommie, never cheat.
I love you, Tom, with all my might.
It's for you and Mom that I must fight.
And I must work and strive to be
A good enough soldier to keep you free.
Sleepy, Tommie? Good for you.
My little son is not quite two."
Leonard Padgham

The Restless Years

We are youth.
Our world is crumbling fast as we push it aside for our wants and needs.
This is our own little world to have and to hold and to keep.
We are not children any more; nor are we adults,
But we are today's youth and expect to be treated as such.
Yes, we are the youth of this fast-growing age.
We find our place in society and take it.
Our world is now glowing with the fire which we have set aflame.
We are happy, carefree, full of life, excitement, and love.
We shout to let everyone know who we are and demand that they follow us.
But no one does.
Then, in time, we learn just as others before us have learned
That before we can teach our ways we first must follow Him;
For He, and only He holds the key to all that we stand for,
Youth . . . Joan Fischer

Willow, Water, and Time

Skipping lightly, he passed over the moon-drenched beach with the treasure in his fist. He rounded a bend in the glittering shore and came to his special cove where he knelt in the cool sand and dug a small hole. Into it he placed a willow slip. As he filled the depression, he let a handful of the liquid, silvery sand run through his small fingers. Then he ran back to his warm bed to listen to the crickets talk to the fairies and to scratch his mosquito bites.

Arm in arm they walked over the beach and dreamily made plans for the future. They sat under the young willow tree and contentedly watched the full moon rise over the shining lake, slapping lazily at the mosquitoes.

After putting the kids to bed, she sank into the lounge chair under the sturdy willow. Spraying all around for mosquitoes, she set the can down, picked up her favorite novel, and was soon engrossed in the tale, while the water lapped gently nearby.

Old and feeble, he sat in his rocker under the dying willow and brushed half-heartedly at the vicious mosquitoes. He could barely see the shining shore.

Today there is a small headstone under a decaying willow tree beside a dry bed which used to be a tiny lake . . . Sigrid Wahlgren

Paradise

I like the smell of pine trees,
The fiery red in the once-green leaves.
I like the cool crispness of the autumn air,
The splashing of icy-blue water on the jagged rocks.
I like the dusty, dirt roads,
The simple little farmhouse in the open field.
I like the quaintness of the small towns,
The friendly atmosphere filled with togetherness.
I like the lonely cabin with tales to be left untold,
The crackling fire in the old cookstove.
I like the tinkling of the cow bells,
The very essence of their being.
I like the wooden gate hanging on its rusty hinges,
The "No Trespassing" sign which keeps intruders out.
I like the hustle-bustle of life,
The peace and tranquility of
My Paradise . . . Jacqueline Boese

Love Blooms in Me

Tall, deep-rooted trees with the wind gently brushing their leaves.
Rains tenderly kissing the earth's dry-brown grasses.
Snow gently falling to tuck the earth away for winter.
Blue skies serving as a bed for fleecy white clouds.
The sun's golden rays spraying the world with their brightness.
The pink violet shadows of sunset making way for the darkness to flow in.
Birds singing in full, rich, melodious tones.
Crickets whispering in a low, shrill voice.
Grasses flowing on in an endless bed for all the beloved animals to share.
Flowers blooming in the morning and resting their weary petals at nightfall.
People — short, fat, tall, thin, smiling, crying, laughing, singing.
God blessing the world and me with His countless gifts.
I have no growing season for these loves for they bloom full in my heart
the year 'round . . . Bonnie Krause

Heritage

They asked me what I valued most in life, what I would want to pass on to my children. This is what I answered:

Freedom instead of communism.
Warmth instead of cold.
Moonlight instead of darkness.
Delicacy instead of hardness.
Vision instead of blindness.
Agreement instead of variance.
Fresh air instead of fog.
Silkiness instead of roughness in nature and man.
Consolidation instead of decay.
Happiness in everything.
Love for everything.
A blending of religion.

I should want my children to have
Security in health and every day living.
Such blessings as the cool refreshment of a summer swim.
The joy and laughter that accompany
snow and snowballs,
ice and ice skates,
hay and hayrides.
Most of all, I want them to enjoy
As I do,
The privilege of learning . . .

Devote Yourself

No man is just his own, for his own.
He must give of himself to the world.
Whether he is a minister preaching the word of God,
Whether he is a dictator spreading obnoxious propaganda,
Whether he is a laborer manufacturing goods for the consumer,
Whether he is a soldier serving his country . . .
Whatever he may be, it is necessary
For him to give of himself.
Society calls; opportunities knock.
Let yourself enter these different worlds.
Charity blooms as you devote yourself . . .

The Maturing Years

A pack of cigarettes and a case of beer,
Bad friends, some trouble, too much cheer,
A crying mother and a sad breakdown,
An angry father and a personal shakedown,
A first love and a sad romance,
A cautious heart afraid to take a chance;
A lot of thinking and a few lonesome walks,
Many smart friends and long, serious talks;
A few people whose pedestals I shook,
A change to classics from other books;
New interests and new kinds of fun,
A stern father whose respect I won,
A few ideas which I turned into pride,
A big, bold front behind which I hide;
Too many nerves and too sensitive;
So I choose to spectate, not to live;
A thousand dreams that had to be shed,
A questioning glance to the road ahead,
A proud, proud head braced by too many fears,
A long, quiet look at my maturing years . . .

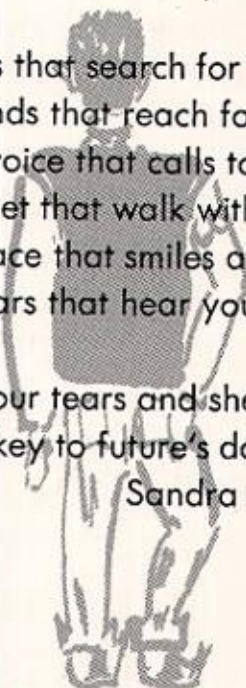

Jack Gunderson

Blue Eyes

Big the eyes that search for you,
Soft the hands that reach for you,
Strong the voice that calls to you,
Small the feet that walk with you,
Bright the face that smiles at you,
Slight the ears that hear you.

Now, dry your tears and shed no more.
Here is the key to future's door . . .

Heartaches

My heart was broken by the guy next door
When he said he didn't love me any more.
Whenever I moved, my right auricle throbbed;
My left ventricle quivered, and I sobbed.
But my aorta kept pumping and working
In spite of the way my right ventricle was jerking.
Those painful heartaches could have stopped a clock;
But then a new guy moved in down the block!

The Things I Love

A wonderful day,
The sun beaming down
on a delicate, tiny lavender tree upon which grows a soft pink camellia that will eventually sit
On a rich, deep mahogany desk in a masculine room enclosing a multitude of precious books . . .

A wonderful day,
The sun beaming down
on an immense home
set back all by itself
near a beautiful lake
surrounded by a garden
containing violets
and the soft pink
camellias which bloom
all year with the yellow roses and the tiny lavender tree . . .

A wonderful day,
The sun beaming down
through fluffy curtains
screening the pale yellow bedroom with sunflowers
on the walls giving it
a Van Gogh-like appearance,
which is very refreshing.
Notice that a huge, soft,
fluffy quilt is
the only cover
on the large bed . . .

A wonderful day,
The sun beaming down
upon the face of a beautiful child playing
amongst the flowers
and trees surrounding the big house which reflects
peace and solitude within.
If in all the world
there could be found
a perfect existence, it would have to contain all these . . . Tina Urban

Imagination

I'd love to see Abe Lincoln
Stand before my eyes
And read his Gettysburg address.
Or else, next best, to see
Abe's humble Sandburg friend
And hear him read
His famous words of tribute
To the president.
And then I'd walk
The wild and bloody battlefield
And see the armies fight and lose
And leave their blood behind,
But take their courage with them
As they head for homes,
Or empty towns . . .
Whatever is their fate . . .

Robert Liebert

Sleepwalker

Sleep, the sorcerer,
Magic bag in hand,
Steals across my spirit,
Bewitching me, enticing me to watch his tricks.
He takes my hand and we float upon a magic carpet of silken scarves until we reach his wondrous castle.
Therein the crafty conjuror opens his time-worn book
of spells and reads me, chapter after chapter,
Strange mysteries,
Unconnected yet somehow interwoven
Like the airy web of some diligent spider that breaks
at a touch of the rude finger of reality.
Then in glides Dawn, his ill-matched mate, who deftly closes the book and, planting a rosy kiss upon my cheek,
Gently leads me back to life . . .

Alone

I stand on my tiptoes and reach for the moon
 On a hill where the soft breeze caresses;
 I lie on my back and gaze at the stars,
 Jewels strung by fairy fingers across the inky shades
 of heaven.
 I glide over dew-frosted grasses
 And hear the whispers of willows along a peaceful brook.
 I wander in the garden at twilight
 And feel the fragrant kisses of sleepy blossoms.
 I skim over blue waves in a sailboat
 And cherish the serenity of space;
 I walk bareheaded in the rain,
 And its clean, gentle coolness refreshes my thoughts.
 I lie on a sun-drenched beach
 And bask in reflected glory;
 I stroll through a forest wearing October's coat
 And enjoy calm, thoughtful moments in nature's sanctuary.
 I crouch before an open fire
 And nestle in its delicious warmth.
 I ride a sleigh through valleys lightly carpeted with snow
 And feel the breath of winter.
 I turn the pages of life
 And wonder at the footnotes;
 I follow untravelled paths
 And take the hand of God . . .

Judith Kester

Vivace

Happiness is a flowing, growing,
 They tell me,
 Much wiser men than I,
 That heart is a rather business-like fellow,
 A hollow musclehead shouldered with the responsibility of converting and refueling the body's roadways with the crimson gas of life, quite incapable of all the emotion people have been attributing
 to him for years.

thing!
 soaring leaping,
 bubbling,

bursting!
 thundering,

 fluttering,

But they have never felt him

Tell me there is no joy,
 But stand away as you speak, oh, cynic,
 Or a germ of my happiness
 May contaminate you . . .

Anne Moore

Eudomnina

Happiness is pink and white. Lovely things are pink and white, happy colors:
 candles and birthday cake,
 a child's dimpled hand,
 a bride's vision of pink and white love roses,
 a teen-age girl lingering on the threshold of womanhood, a glimpse of powderpuff pink and white grace.

Happiness is a fragile thing, an iridescent glass ball or a bubble of silver.
 It floats adrift in a world of fantasy.
 Watch, take care of your gift. Drop it, your glass ball, and you will have a shattered crystal of a dream.
 Prick your bubble of silver with a pin of sharp
 thoughts, and you will have an explosion of unhappiness.
 So, hold onto your treasure. Happiness is pink and white.
 Happiness is fragile . . . Karen Nordstrom

Hi Betty -
Here I am at your house writing in your notebook. It sure has been fun knowing you this year. Remember the times we tried to play tennis together. Every now we went home together, it was sure nice to have somebody to go home with. Have a wonderful senior-year Betty, and good luck to you in college. You're a cute girl. See me in Holland, sometimes and don't forget to write me! Love,

Dear OHS Friends:

IT IS REALLY HARD for me to say in a few lines how I feel about having been at OHS this year. I could write a book about the wonderful experiences I had! I am grateful to the American Field Service for making it possible for me to come to America.

Never did I feel so much hospitality, friendliness, and generosity in my whole life. The Millers, with whom I lived this year, made me a member of their nice family and I have been very happy with them. Many thanks, too, to the officials and to the faculty at OHS who made my courses interesting and helped me to understand the American way of life.

I shall always remember the activities I had at OHS. The pep rallies, the pot lucks before the games, the dances and the parties you invited me to were really fun.

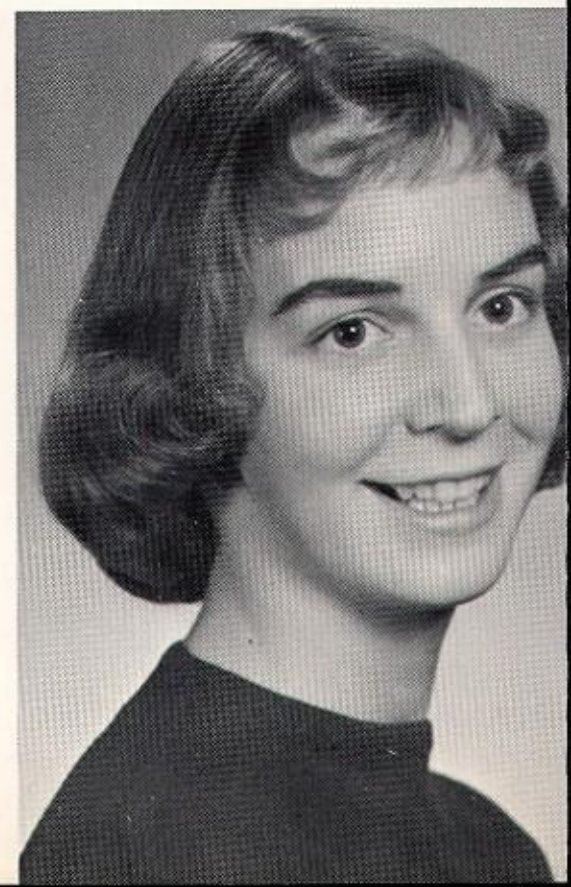

I wish the Student Council many prosperous years with their most valuable work. It is really the nerve center of all the student activities. I had never realized that you worked so hard to keep the AFS program going. This is wonderful, and, for the next year, good luck with the calendar sale!

I know I shall leave you with a sad heart, but I shall take many happy memories back to Holland. This has been a wonderful year and I would like to thank every one of you with this invitation: Come and see me soon. You will be most heartily welcome at my home.

The Voice of Democracy

WE'RE VERY PROUD that our local winner in the VOD contest took first place in the state and will go to Washington in February to compete for the national championship.

Democracy is a mighty word,
A strong and powerful word;
Its nine letters capture the basic elements

Which are America,
Forming them into DEMOCRACY,
Creating the life-blood of our existence,

The pulse of our American way of life.

I am an American;
I speak for Democracy.

D is the beginning of Democracy —
D means, to me, DECISION,

An unwavering determination to work for Democracy —

To stand our ground;
Seeing a Khrushchev swagger and
pout and proselytize
Makes us thank God for freedom,
and strength to resist, and a free press.

We guard against inner decay and
outward aggression,
Because sincerely and surely, my heart says

Democracy does the most, cares the most, means the most.

D is DECISION.

E means ENTHUSIASM,

The pride we show in our Democracy,

"My country, 'tis of thee" —

Yes, I sing of Democracy.

In schoolrooms all over the land,
children sing enthusiastically of Democracy,

Only half-comprehending, yet feeling the wonder, the power of
it —

Not mere flag waving and parade-
watching,

But a creative, constructive enthusiasm.

M is for MAINTENANCE,

What I must do to maintain the priceless gifts

Earned by the Battles and bloodshed,
Fortitude and fearlessness,
Sweat and toil,

Tears and love of our forefathers.
"Vigilance is the price of survival" —

This thought must dwell with me
every day;

I must remain steadfast
In the midst of hot words, cold wars,
and international strife.

O stands for OPPORTUNITY,

The chance we, as Americans, have To grow, to learn, to think, and to earn for ourselves,

Baby-sit, wait on tables, earn a million dollars;

But we conform only when personal principle is not sacrificed;

Our talents find release:

We can become artists, teachers,
farmers, ministers, doctors,

On the basis of personal qualification;

Ambition and skill are all-
important,

Not the arbitrary dictates of a self-appointed power.

C is for the CONSTITUTION,

A written guarantee,

Like an insurance policy,

Entitling each of us to rights and privileges;

But the strength of a Constitution

Depends upon the willingness of the people to support it;

And we ARE the people.

What must it have cost

Those courageous ones who framed
it

That we might speak freely, write
without unreasonable censorship,
worship as we choose.

Because —

We are Americans.

R is for RESPONSIBILITY;

The obligations each of us has

To pull the voting lever, after intelligent thought,

To support our schools,

To take part in government;

Realization of our responsibility animates Democracy.

A is for ABUNDANCE —

JUDITH KESTER

She spoke for Democracy

Material abundance, seen in Sun-kissed fields of swaying grain,
Milk bottles at the back door,
Crowded dime store windows,
Fresh laundry,

Hamburgers and ice cream,
TV sets and golf clubs.

Spiritual abundance, felt and heard in

Prayers and smiles,
Songs and sympathy,
Charity and friendship,
Church bells and weddings
Handclasps and security.

C is for CITIZENSHIP,

The realization that all good things
require effort;

Not only making rules, but living by them;

Taking an active interest in the community;

Being flexible, but not radical,

Being open-minded,

Shattering prejudice,

Choking corruption,

Voicing opinions.

Y is for YOUTH.

Let Youth be thinkers and doers,

Not branded and classified

Beatnik, defeatist, delinquent —

Let youth learn to know and to love

the great land that we live in;

For soon we shall stand in the high places, holding the reins;

TODAY but a whisper, TOMORROW
youth's voice shall be heard
as Democracy's shout!

Judy Kester

Sports

ALMOST FROM THE BEGINNING we were caught up in a whirl of confetti and excitement . . . We dashed into the football season with its potlucks, pizzas, pompoms, and pep meetings . . . We jumped on the bleachers, rang cow bells, kept an eye on our favorite players, and grew a little hoarse cheering the team to victory . . . We spent hours preparing our floats and homeroom decorations for Homecoming, and we sported our blue and white colors proudly wherever we went . . . Then, suddenly, we found ourselves in the midst of the basketball season — new coach, new thrills, same old Rec Gym . . . Each game was extra special because we were there, we were part of it . . . We discovered what loyalty really means . . . We learned that you don't have to play a sport to be one!

Queen Kay Stry waves to her subjects as her attendants, Barbara Lord, Gretchyn Ilk, and Sue Englund, smile greetings to everyone.

A. Reinke, J. Kozak, and L. Loots help to get ready for the game in which we expect to "Make East the Least."

Homecoming — 1959

Mr. Peterson and Mr. Baxter sing, "With a little bit of luck" . . . and that was all we needed.

This recipe, created by homeroom A-416 and tested by the Indians, is highly recommended.

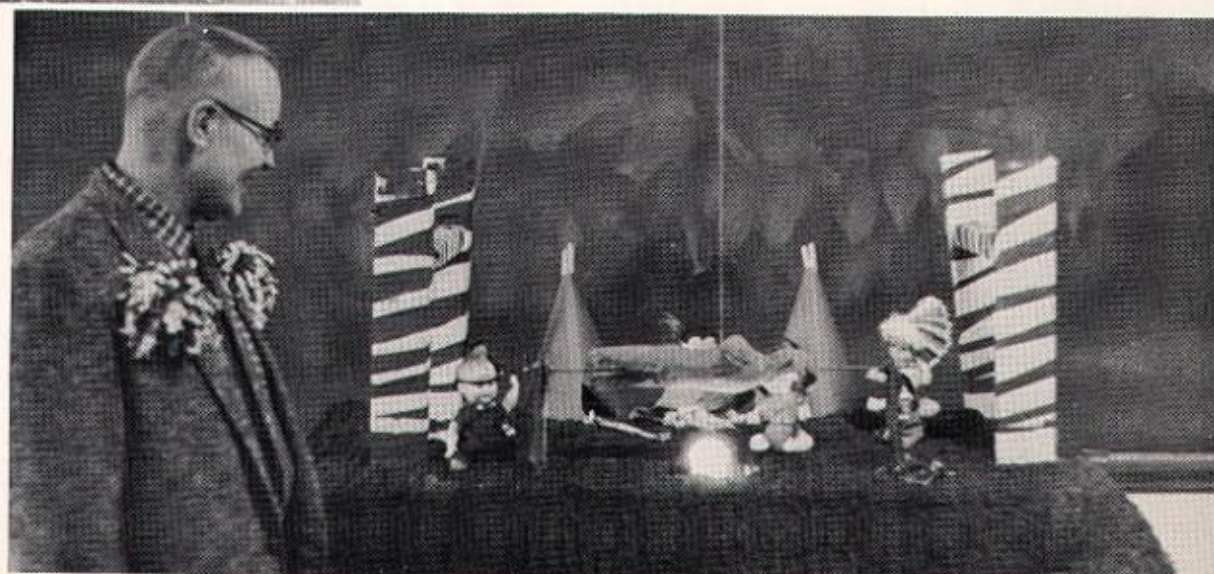

Heaven conquers all, and A-105 proved it with this winning float.

Mr. Schultz and homeroom B-404 had a premonition that our Indians would feast on East.

Homeroom B-406 hoped to use East as yeast and it did!

The Big Day

WE CAME TO SCHOOL that day proud of our colors, and we proved it by wearing blue jeans, white shirts, and tons of mums . . . We really did try to concentrate on classes, but finally it was time for the pep meeting so we packed the Rec., laughed ourselves sick at the faculty skit, and cheered ourselves hoarse with the cheerleaders . . . The parade was a high moment as we stood with the excited crowd waiting for the floats . . . Of course, the game was a terrific climax and the fact that East really was "least" made it all perfect . . . Afterward, the dance, soft lights, dreamy music . . . it all added to the warm glow that we get when we remember

Hi-Lights

MADISON EAST (26) — OSHKOSH (26)

East fought mighty hard to tie the Indians' spectacular first half. Touchdowns by Frank, Schumerth, and Konrad (2) were matched by Madison in the second.

MANITOWOC (0) — OSHKOSH (13)

On a field of goo, the Indians, with two touchdowns by Egnoski, plowed over Manty in the sloppiest battle of the season.

GREEN BAY WEST (14) — OSHKOSH (14)

The Indians fought the Wildcats to the second deadlock of the season. Touchdowns were made by Frank and Konrad.

APPLETON (21) — OSHKOSH (0)

All our scoring attempts failed and the Terrors administered a crushing defeat.

SHEBOYGAN CENTRAL (24) — OSHKOSH (20)

In a real tear-jerker, Oshkosh fans saw their team fall into the clutches of the Redmen in the final four minutes of a thrilling game.

SHEBOYGAN NORTH (13) — OSHKOSH (20)

Once again in the mud and rain, but this time we defeated our opponents on touchdowns by Egnoski, Rutz, and Bradley.

GREEN BAY EAST (14) — OSHKOSH (20)

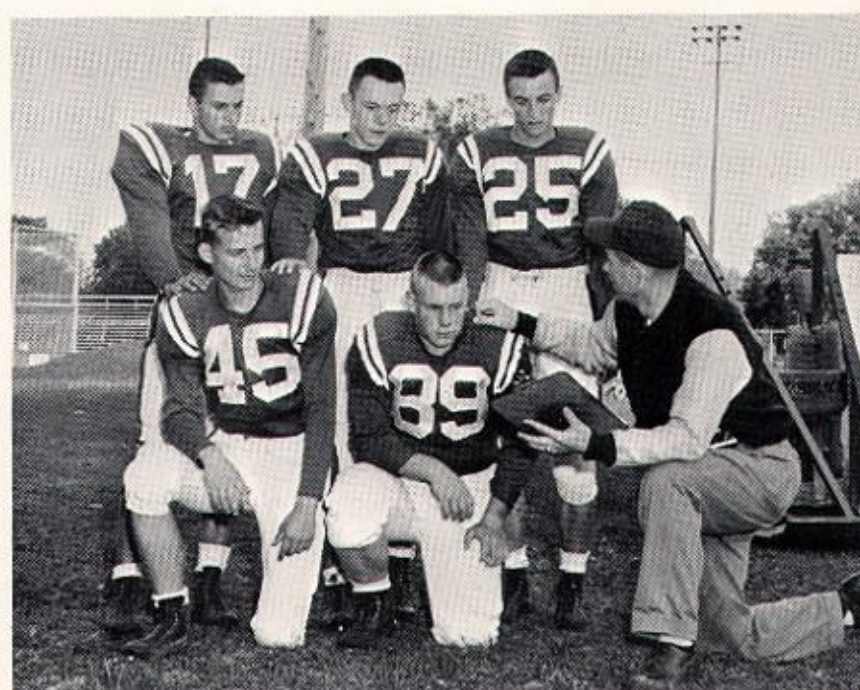

Our team thrilled excited fans when they really made "East the Least" at the Homecoming game.

FOND DU LAC (10) — OSHKOSH (7)

A Fondy field goal forced Oshkosh into a fourth place position in the conference.

The Rebound

Illness, injuries, and a variety of other misfortunes were enough to off-balance the sharpshooting Indians during a hard-fought but unsuccessful season.

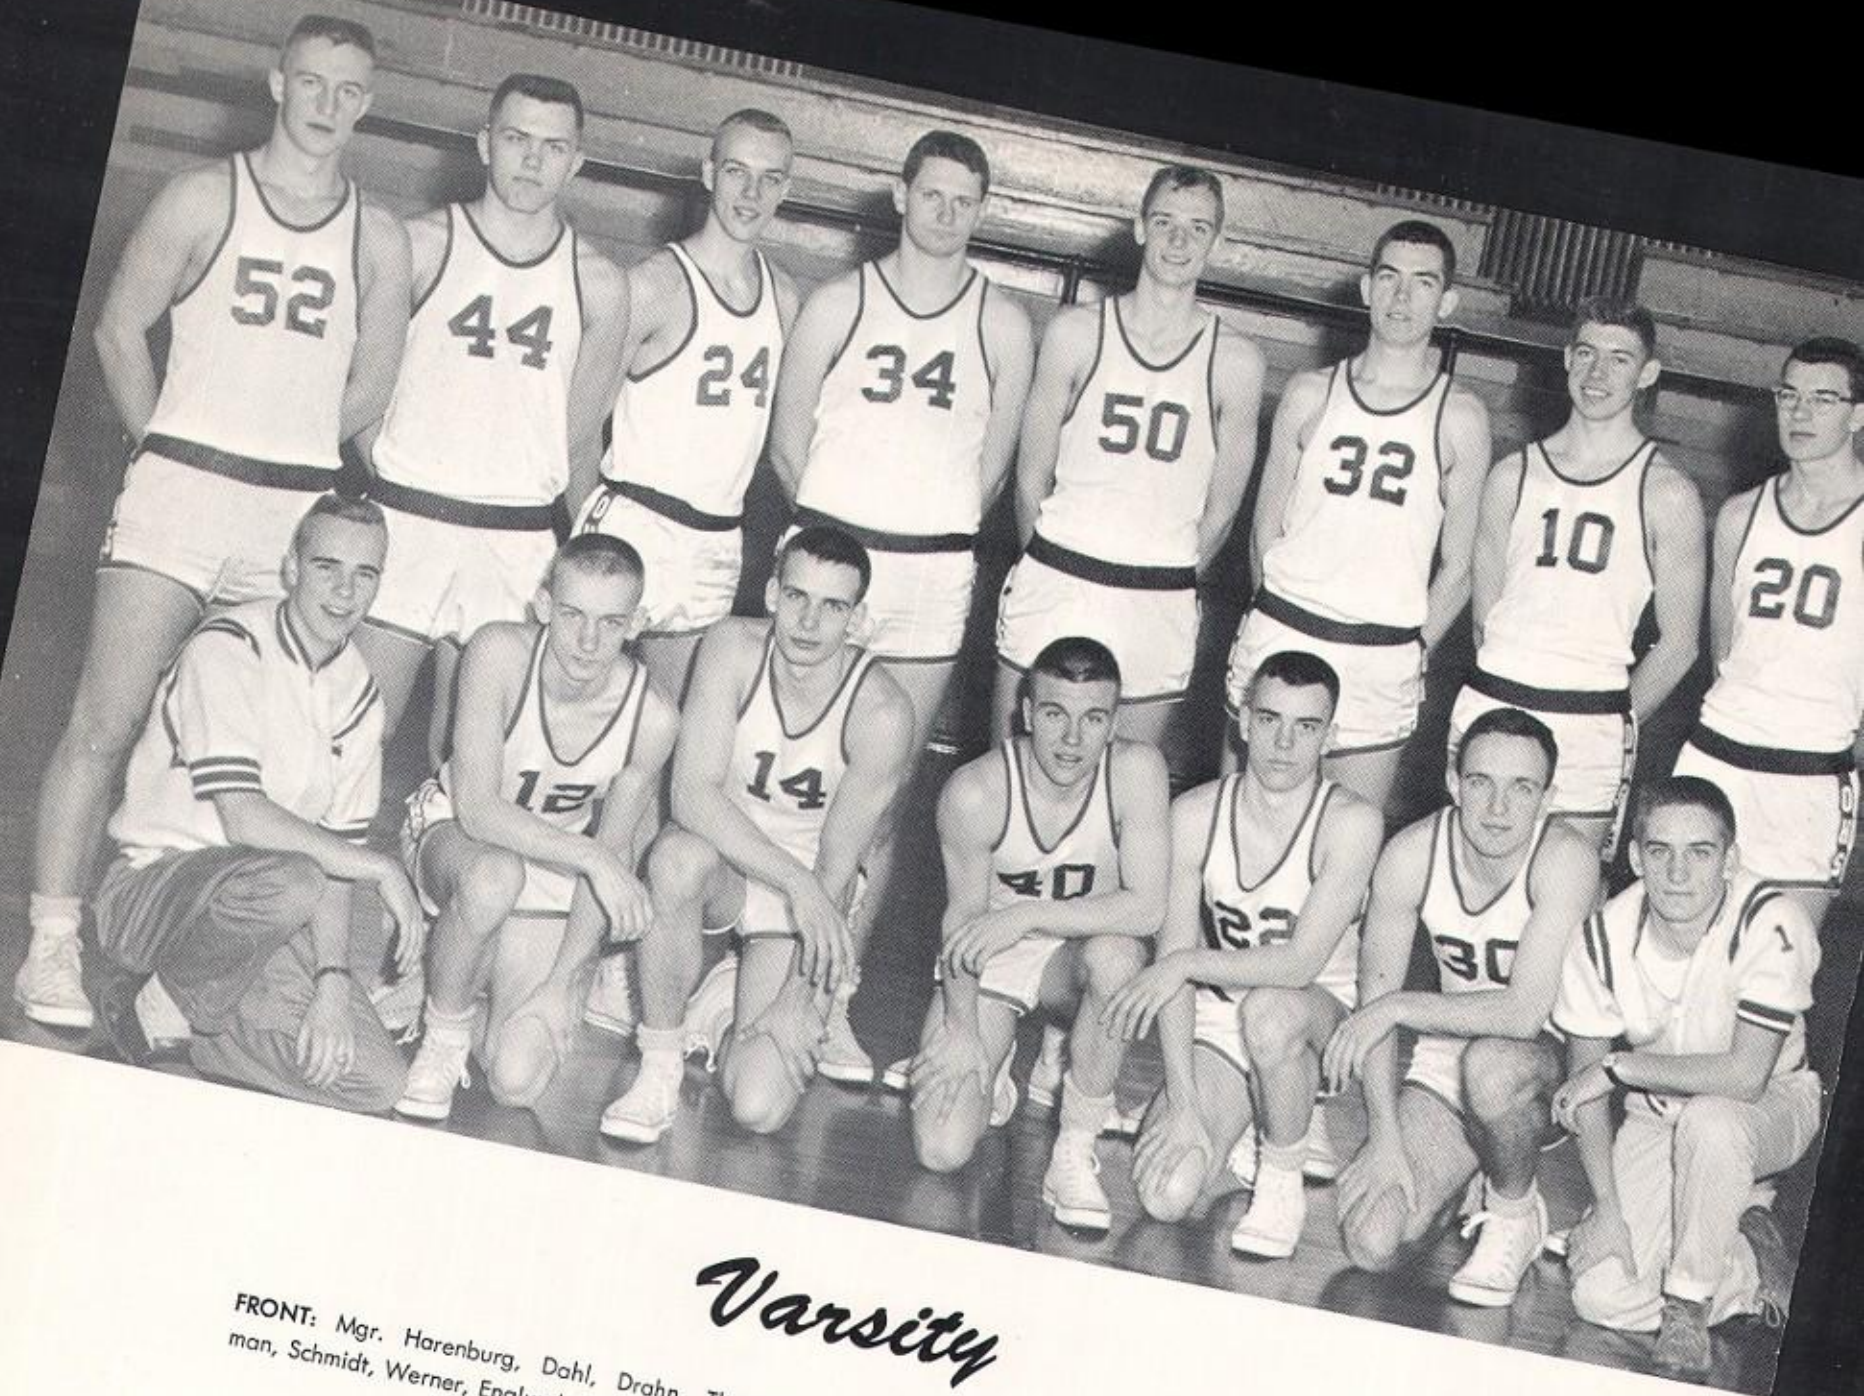

Our sad record in no way reflects the fighting spirit of our team nor did it dampen the spirits of steadfast OHS fans.

The entire student body is strong in its appreciation and support of our fine new coach, Mr. Don Erickson!

Intramural

EACH YEAR SINCE 1950, about 200 boys have been active in our intramural sports program (MIAA to you). A sport is offered to suit every taste from golf to wrestling and from table tennis to bowling. The club follows a point system similar to the one used in GAA but the big award — the one presented only to the top ten — is a trip to see a Braves' game. To be eligible for that, a member must earn a minimum of 1,500 points!

Yes, a lot of activity goes on in our school long after the last bell has rung!

Is it a strike? Is it a spare??? It's G. Lewellyn throwing a gutter ball!

J. Patten, D. Galow, J. Suckow, F. Steinhilber, and G. Smith — members of the top bowling team — admire their trophies.

"Batter up!"

Tension???? before the play-offs!

Program

VARIETY, THEY SAY, is the spice of life and variety is just what GAA has to offer. Badminton, bowling, and basketball, golf, tennis, and swimming are some of the activities on the club calendar.

Any girl in school may play these games, of course, but a record of points is kept only for those who are dues-paying members. The points are based on a record of participation — five points an hour for sports outside of school, ten points for each game of team play, and 100 points go to the members of a winning team. A total of 500 points is necessary for a member to become eligible for a letter, while a chevron calls for an additional 500. Besides all this, a trophy is awarded to the winning bowlers and everyone on the top teams in badminton and basketball receives a medal.

Yes, GAA goes a long way to promote both physical and mental health. Not only that — it's fun!

Wonder what Mr. Quandt is up to.

Summer-saultin' Sally suspensefully stunts.

Seniors

Betty - It sure has been fun in typing especially first semester. Good Luck
as a "big senior" and with Bill. You're swell
Hail B. Hus

WE SENIORS PRIDED OURSELVES on being "big wheels" until it suddenly dawned on us that soon we would be leaving school and facing a big world; then, somehow, we felt quite small. We remembered little things that never seemed important before . . . a familiar desk, that snappy band uniform, the line-up at the cage. And we remembered the big things . . . exciting class elections, that certain understanding teacher, the enchantment of the Senior Prom. We remembered wonderful people and wondered if we'd ever see them again.

Then it was June 9. We stood in our caps and gowns, a ribbon of blue on a field of green, singing the Alma Mater for the last time and looking into the future with tear-filled eyes. Some of us knew that college, a job, or marriage lay ahead; others faced a series of uncertainties. But we all knew in our hearts that part of us would always remain at OHS.

"Hail, Alma Mater,
Hats off to you.
Ever you'll find us
Loyal and true . . ."

ELLEN FOX

1959-1960 has been a year of crises . . . tension walked everywhere.

. . . in tennis shoes . . .

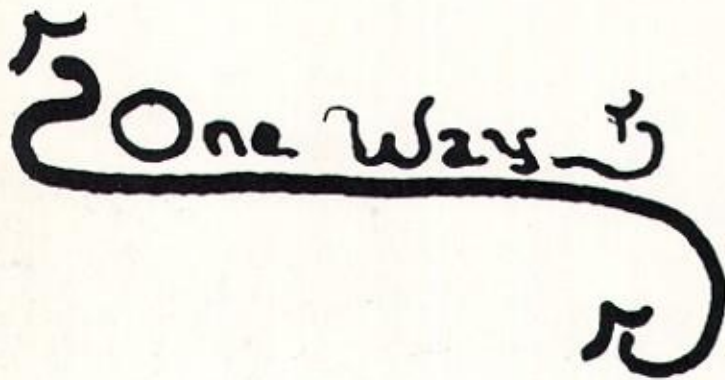

. . . in pixie shoes . . .

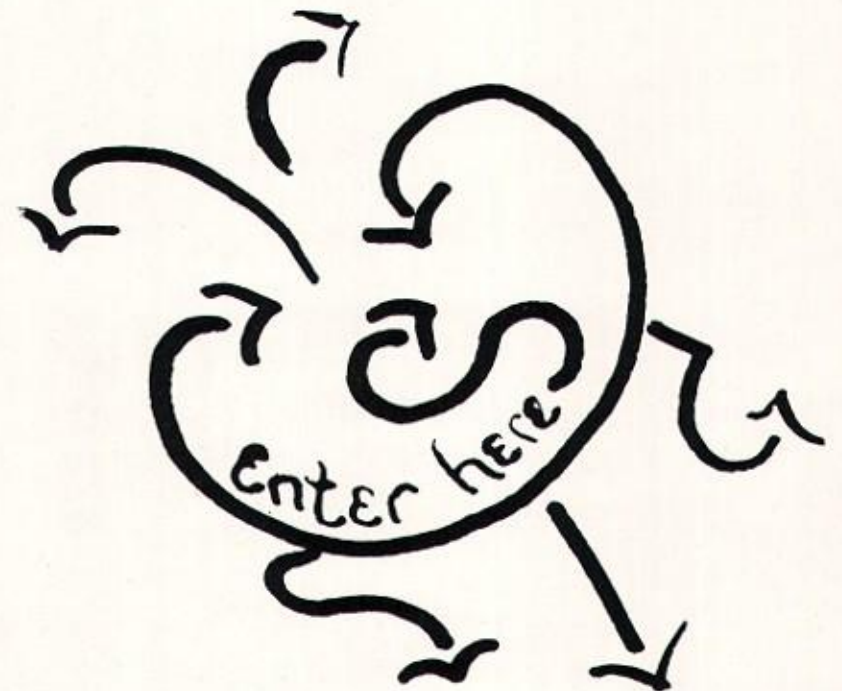

. . . in heels . . .

. . . even on the one-way streets of our town.

(There are more arrows in Oshkosh today than there were in the time of the Indians)

There was crisis in everything

From Castro . . . to . . . Cranberries
From Beatnicks . . . to . . . Berlin
From Steel strikes . . . to . . . Smelovision
From Payola . . . to . . . Parking Ramps

*We were Junior
with our new ways,
I hope to see you
soon some day.
Will be seniors next year, marching down the walk in the old time team.
Lots of luck in '61"
Barney

Those who couldn't take it could always

find shelter in this haven
for motorists

If Tension Walked

in '59-'60, she went out dressed to the hilt . . .

. . . in white pleated skirts . . .

. . . in corduroy slacks . . .

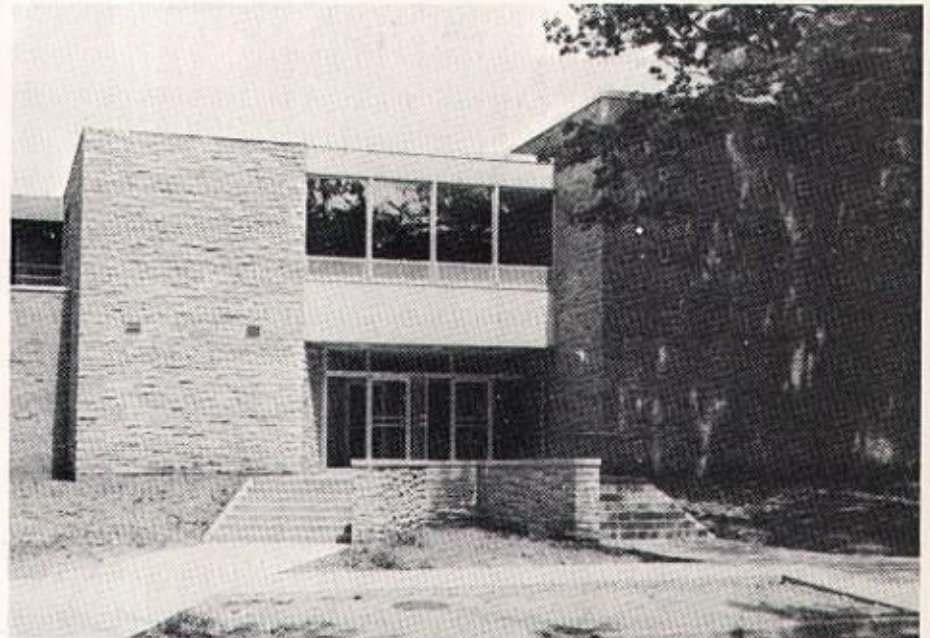

. . in tights . . .

"The old order changeth" as we welcomed Alaska and Hawaii into statehood and Jack Paar back into television . . .

We celebrated the opening of Lourdes and of the Reeves Memorial Union

The new Catholic High School

the College recreation center

. . . and we shed a quiet tear over the closing of the familiar isolation booth.

thus marking the end of "fixed" quiz shows and the beginning of congressional investigations . . .

This Was a Great Year for traveling: Eisenhower traveled far and wide . . .

Khrushchev came to America . . . and sent his representative to the moon . . .

Some of us discarded our Edsels and traveled in a brand new compact car . . .

Ford's Edsel

Chevrolet's Corvair

Ford's Falcon

. . . to see Wisconsin's ill-starred team play in the Rose Bowl.

But whether we rushed around in the new jet planes or whether we just stayed home and watched the world go by, there are a lot of things to remember about this year . . . Queen Elizabeth gave birth to a son . . . and so did Brigitte Bardot . . . Princess Margaret of England announced her engagement to commoner Anthony Armstrong-Jones . . . and Steven, heir to the Rockefeller millions, went to Norway to marry Anna Marie . . . Death took Ethel, the last of the Barrymores, from the scene . . . Elvis Presley came home from the army and found that the craze for rock-'n'-roll had switched to ballads and instrumentals and Pat Boone . . . America was reading Allen Drury's "Advise and Consent" . . . or Mad Magazine . . . or headlines about James Hoffa, civil rights, and the dangers lurking in lipsticks and cigarettes . . . Early in 1960, census takers predicted that the population of the United States would reach 180,000,000 while the local Chamber of Commerce estimated 48,000 for our city . . . Business conditions were good with the average income at $6,200 (before taxes and deductions!) . . . It was quite a year, 1959-'60, and we're glad we were part of it!

Student Code Week

"We, the students of Ushkosh High, in order to insure our privileges, do hereby recognize our responsibilities toward our school and our community . . ." . . . thus the preamble of our Student Code, the "constitution" of our school. Our big week with its Student Code Day, Courtesy Day, Dress Up Day, Teacher Appreciation Day, and Color Day gave us many opportunities to put our ideals into practice.

All-in-all, it was an exciting chapter in our story of "That Wonderful Year!" . . .

Our unusual cover, our division pages, our group pictures, our senior panels — in fact, all of the major photography in our book has been done by Mr. John Thompson of ZERNICKE'S STUDIO. Our deepest appreciation goes to Mr. Thompson who for years, has filled the NOTEBOOK with beautiful pictures entirely without cost to us.

The NOTEBOOK says a very special "thank you" to Mr. Richard W. Osborn, Assistant Professor of Art at Oshkosh State College, who contributed our striking and unusual end pages.

Our sincere thanks to Mr. John Miner and to Mr. Walter Herdina of the OSHKOSH DAILY NORTHWESTERN for their courtesy in allowing us to borrow many negatives from their files.

*Butty,
 Nice to have you in homeroom
 and English this year. Hope we can work together again in the year to come. So a fine person, good luck.

Hi "Bet"
 Remember?
 I'm the girl who was ahead of you all
 years in geometry.
 Too hope I will see you often a friend??
 Mary Jo Anderson

Well we will be in the same Home Room next year. Good luck
 this summer and see
 you in the fall.
 Gary "Jake" Borer

Hi Betty,
 You certainly did a good job at Gabe. Some day will get you to come to a meeting at church.
 It was a pleasure
 meeting you.
 Shirley Johnson

we sure did have fun in typing class and in the summer this year. Have fun this year. And good luck next year. See of autenschlager

Hi Betty!
I'm glad we were in the same geometry class. Have fun this summer. Janet & Gonnell

Hi Betty,
It's been wonderful being in geometry with you. Good luck in math III!
Paula Borchers

Hi Betty,
It's been nice sitting by you in geometry class. Have fun this summer.
Janet & Gonnell
